Language

A subject pronoun is used as the subject of a sentence. (I, you, he, she, it, we, they)

An object pronoun can take the place of a noun that follows an action verb or preposition. (me, you, him, her, it, us, them)

A reflexive pronoun ends in -self or -selves and refers to the subject of a sentence.

AL History

Students will be looking at two important documents:

The Emancipation Proclamation
The Thirteenth Amendment

Students will also begin viewing a video about the Civil War - "Johnny Shiloh"
