

Miss Sloan's Newsletter

May 7 - 11, 2018

Language

An adverb is a word that tells more about a verb.

Adverbs tell when, where, or how an action takes place.

Many adverbs end in -ly.

Alabama History

We will continue our studies of post-World War 2 next week.

Spelling Words

- | | |
|------------|--------------|
| 1. shaken | 11. raisin |
| 2. sunken | 12. muffin |
| 3. eleven | 13. penguin |
| 4. woven | 14. button |
| 5. widen | 15. reason |
| 6. ridden | 16. cotton |
| 7. proven | 17. wagon |
| 8. often | 18. dragon |
| 9. robin | 19. common |
| 10. cousin | 20. skeleton |

Homework Schedule

Monday - study Spelling; Language h.w. due on Wed.

Tuesday - study Spelling; Language h.w. due on Wednesday.

Wednesday - Language H.W. due; study for tests

Thursday - Spelling Test; Language Test

Friday -

IMPORTANT UPCOMING DATES

Remember to send $1.00 for the mailing of your report card.

Class Party: May 18th – a letter will be sent home soon

Carnival Day: May 21, more information will be sent home next week for parents to volunteer

Last Day for Students: May 24th

